

Getting Started

I can't find my registration key

If you purchased the software through the Fade In website, your registration key would have been sent to you in an email with the subject "Fade In Professional Screenwriting Software user information", along with your username and personalized download link. (If you purchased the software elsewhere, such as the Mac App Store, you won't have a registration key.)

Please check that you still have access to the purchasing email account to which the information would have been sent.
