

Formatting

How to override "(cont'd)" after a Character element

To remove all occurrences of "(cont'd)" to indicate the same character speaking again, you can turn it off under Document > More and Continued.

To override only a single occurrence, you can (currently) just add a single space after the character name. That shouldn't affect inclusions in lists or reports, or anything except the automatic addition of "(cont'd)".

Unique solution ID: #1163

Author: Fade In Administrator

Last update: 2021-08-19 23:10